The cheapest parking for our home games can be found on Chapel Street, right next to the University of Huddersfield campus.

For Saturday games, it is free to park here if you arrive after 6pm. If you arrive before 6pm, it is £4.10 for up to 5 hours. For Sunday games, it costs just £1.60 for the entire day. This is on-street, pay and display parking which can be paid for with cash or card at any of the machines on the street or on the RingGo app (location no: 84188)

Getting from the Parking to the Game

Walk down to the bottom of Chapel Street and turn left and walk up the hill on Queen Street South for 220m.

Carry on straight forward onto Queensgate (200m), which will bear to the right with a church-like building on your right.

You will then see the front of the University of Huddersfield on your right (as per image 1 below). Go onto the campus and cross over the roundabout, via the colourful pedestrian crossing (image 2).

Then head across the pedestrianised area toward the building with Student Central above the door (image 3). Inside Student Central go to the left of the reception desk, which will be in front of you, and then head down the stairs to the sports hall and enjoy the game.
